Instructions: Each poem must be paper-clipped to a contest entry form and submitted, grouped by school, in a large, labeled envelope. A Chorale representative will retrieve submissions from each school following the submission deadline. Top entries will be chosen anonymously from each of the four middle-schools in Dubuque and then ranked: 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and Honorable Mention. Each middle-school will have a winner who places in the top four. See Poetry Contest Guidelines for more information.

Release & Consent:

By signing below, the writer and parent hereby grant and assign to Dubuque Chorale the non-exclusive right and permission to use this original poetry in performance, advertising, and media coverage for the spring 2014 performances of Let The River Run. Contest winners are determined anonymously by a panel of judges and their decision is final. Following the spring performances of Let The River Run, the copyright returns to the writer and s/he will maintain all rights. I understand that any use of this submitted work will include my child's name as its creator. I hereby release and discharge Dubuque Chorale from any and all claims arising out of or in connection with the use of the original artwork, writing, and photos, including without limitations any and all claims for libel or invasion of privacy. Poem submissions will not be returned, so writers are advised to keep a copy. I further declare and avow that the work that I am submitting to the Let The River Run contest is my own original work.

I, _____, being the undersigned artist, hereby consent to and join in the foregoing release, pledge, and consent.
